Instructional Technology Department

Welcome to the Instructional Technology Department

The vision of the Manhasset Schools is to integrate various instructional technologies to engage, enhance, and extend student learning at all grade levels. Over the past years, the use of instructional technology has become a core component of the educational process. Students in our schools today will go on to careers and adult lives which rely upon technology proficiency.

Acknowledging this reality, New York State has adopted a set of Computer Science and Digital Fluency Standards
